4-H'ers Showcase Dramatic Talents

Lincoln County 4-H'ers showcased their dramatic talent when they were transformed into many characters. Saturday, April 17th, 2010 at St. Anne's Season in Merrill, for the county Lincoln County 4-H Drama Festival. Four cartle, Kimberly Kirsle and Deb Kowalski, judged the auditorium, educational and entertainment place. The festival was planned and coordinated by Sue Koepke and the Corning Yankees 4-H Club and concerning four Antigo and Rhinelander Lincoln County 4-H Ambassadors.

By participating in the Drama Festival, youth have the opportunity to develop, strengthen and expand their skills and interest in theatre arts. Youth also develop self-confidence in their ability to perform in front of an audience in a safe and friendly environment. Most importantly, it is the social friendship youth form while practicing and performing their plays.

4-H is open to all youth in grade Kindergarten through 12 here are other ways to get involved, regardless of where you live. For more information about joining 4-H, contact the Lincoln County UW Extension office at 536-1672 or visit our website at www.lincoln.county.wi.com.
